THE UNVIERSITY OF OXFORD TERMS

Please note that by registering for the History Admissions Test (HAT) you are agreeing that data provided as part of the entry process may be passed to the University of Oxford and that data may be used for research purposes in connection with admissions procedures. The University of Oxford is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal information. For information on how the University manages applicant data, please refer to their Privacy Notice.

CENTRE'S TERMS

- Fair collection notice

The British Council complies with data protection law in the UK and laws in other countries that meet internationally accepted standards. You have the right to ask for a copy of the information we hold on you, and the right to ask us to correct any inaccuracies in that information. If you have concerns about how we have used your personal information, you also have the right to complain to a privacy regulator.

For detailed information, please refer to the privacy section of our website, www.britishcouncil.org/privacy or contact your local British Council office. We will keep your information for a period of 4 months from the time of collection.

We may want to use your information to send you details of British Council activities, services and events (including social events) which you might find of interest.

- Please tick this box if you would like to receive marketing updates.

Please detail the method with which you would like to receive marketing information from the British Council.

- Call Text Email

You have a right to ask for a copy of the information we hold on you, for which we may charge a fee, and the right to ask us to correct any inaccuracies in that information. If you do want to see a copy of your information, please contact the British Council in Pakistan.

- Disclaimer

The British Council and the examining boards take all reasonable steps to provide continuity of service. We feel sure you will understand, however, that we cannot be held responsible for any interruptions caused by circumstances beyond our control. If examinations or their results are disrupted, cancelled or delayed, every effort will be made to resume normal service as soon as possible. The British Council's liability will be limited to the refund of the registration fee or re-testing at a later date.

- Warning

Both the British Council and UK examining boards take instances of attempted impersonation extremely seriously. Where an impostor attempts to sit the examination on behalf of the actual candidate both the impostor and the candidate at the very least may be reported to the Police. The actual candidates' session results will be cancelled by the examining board with the possibility that they may also be barred from appearing in future examinations with any UK examining board.

Please ensure that you attach two passport size photographs that have been taken within the last six months. This is important so that our staffs are easily able to verify your identity without any undue inconvenience for you.
