7 Specification

There is a requirement of 2 different audits at the British Council, Karachi facility and 1 audit at the British Council, Lahore facility.

The addresses of the locations are as follows:

- (a) Karachi: British Council, British Deputy High Commission, Shahrah-e-Iran, Clifton, Karachi
- (b) Lahore: British Council, 65 Mozang Road, Lahore

These are bifurcated as follows:

(a) Structural Audit (Karachi)

The objective of this study is to examine the existing condition of the roof to determine its safe load-carrying capacity and to conduct a structural assessment of the building's columns and supporting members to verify their current strength and stability.

The proposed scope of work includes the following activities:

Visual Inspection:

- Detailed on-site visual assessment of RCC members (columns, beams, roof slabs).
- Identification of visible signs of distress such as cracks, corrosion, spalling, deflection, deformation, and any structural deterioration.
- Photographic documentation and recording of structural observations.
- Preparation of condition assessment summary based on visual findings.

Non-Destructive Testing:

The following tests shall be conducted on representative structural members to evaluate concrete quality, reinforcement details, and indicative compressive strength:

- (a) Schmidt Hammer Test (ASTM C805): To determine surface hardness and estimate indicative compressive strength of concrete.
- (b) Ultrasonic Pulse Velocity (UPV) Test (ASTM C597): To assess internal homogeneity, detection of cracks, honeycombing, and voids within concrete.
- (c) Ferroscanner Test: To locate reinforcement bars, determine concrete cover and spacing.

Structural Analysis:

After the visual inspection, site visit, and NDT, a detailed structural analysis is to be carried out by the Service Provider to determine the load-carrying capacity of the roof and overall structure. This analysis will also evaluate the existing strength, stability, and performance of all structural members—including columns and supporting elements under both gravity and seismic (earthquake) loads. ETABS and STAAD.Pro software and calculation sheets will be used for comprehensive structural modelling and assessment.

Deliverables:

A comprehensive report covering the following is to be prepared and submitted:

- Visual inspection summary with photographic evidence.
- NDT results (Schmidt Hammer, UPV, and Ferroscanner) with test data, observations, and interpretation.
- Structural Analysis & Design Review as per existing condition (including Structural Analysis or Modelling for Load Capacity)
- Findings, conclusions, and recommendations regarding the observed condition and required remedial actions (if any).

Code and Standard References:

Following Codes and Standards are to be used in Assessment and Testing of Structures.

(b) VRV + Split Unit Audit (Karachi and Lahore):

To conduct a visual inspection and functional performance verification (where applicable) of the installed VRV equipment, including testing of fans and motors. The Audit will also include inspection and functional performance verification of the split units. The objective is to assess the general condition, operational readiness and functional status of the equipment to support ongoing operations.

Approach:

The inspection will be carried out using a structured and systematic approach focused on visual assessment, functional verification and testing of key VRV and split unit components to ensure completeness and clarity of findings:

Site Familiarization:

Conduct an initial walkthrough with facility management staff in Karachi and Lahore.

Review available documentation, including system layout drawings and any relevant maintenance records.

Visual Inspection:

Evaluate the physical condition of all VRV and Split Unit equipment for signs of wear, corrosion, leakage or damage.

Check for proper installation, accessibility, labelling and compliance with basic safety requirements.

Functional Performance Verification:

Where feasible and safe, request operation of selected equipment to verify startup functionality and general response.

Observe for abnormal behaviour such as unusual noise, excessive vibration or failure to start.

On site Testing:

On site testing of motors & fans is to be performed to assess their operational performance.

Recording Observations:

Log all findings using standardized templates and annotated photographs.

Assign severity levels to any issues identified: Minor, Moderate or Critical.

Communication to British Council:

Report any critical observations immediately to the British Council representative.

Prepare and submit a comprehensive report summarizing all findings, including equipment-wise conditions, observations and supporting photographic or media evidence.

Methodology:

The inspection will be guided by practical field evaluation principles tailored for non-invasive equipment assessment.

Equipment Categorization:

Equipment will be grouped by functional category:

Exhaust Fans

Split Units

Visual Inspection Criteria:

Each equipment item will be inspected for the following:

Structural integrity (rust, corrosion, damage)

Mounting condition, supports, and alignment

Electrical panel accessibility and cable connections

Piping connections, insulation condition, visible leaks

Functional Performance Checks Where accessible and safe:

Start/stop operations will be verified either manually or through BMS.

Basic functional indicators such as startup delay, unusual noise or immediate fault trips are to be noted.

Efficiency testing of VRV motors for fans and exhaust units is to be performed only for those fans & motors that are above 5 kW power rating, where nameplate data is available while for split units it should be for 100 watts and above.

Criteria	Weighting
Quality	30%
Methodology and Approach	30%
Commercial	40%

13.3 Scoring Model – Proposals will be subject to an initial review at the start of Stage 2 of the evaluation process. Any Proposals not meeting mandatory requirements or constraints (if any) will be rejected in full at this point and will not be assessed or scored further. Proposals not so rejected will be scored by an evaluation panel appointed by the British Council for all criteria other than Commercial using the following scoring model:

Points	Interpretation
10	Excellent – Overall the response demonstrates that the bidder meets all areas of the requirement and provides all of the areas evidence requested in the level of detail requested. This, therefore, is a detailed excellent response that meets all aspects of the requirement leaving no ambiguity as to whether the bidder can meet the requirement.

7	Good – Overall the response demonstrates that the bidder meets all areas of the requirement and provides all of the areas of evidence requested, but contains some trivial omissions in relation to the level of detail requested in terms of either the response or the evidence. This, therefore, is a good response that meets all aspects of the requirement with only a trivial level ambiguity due the bidders failure to provide all information at the level of detail requested.
5	Adequate – Overall the response demonstrates that the bidder meets all areas of the requirement, but not all of the areas of evidence requested have been provided. This, therefore, is an adequate response, but with some limited ambiguity as to whether the bidder can meet the requirement due to the bidder's failure to provide all of the evidence requested.
3	Poor – The response does not demonstrate that the bidder meets the requirement in one or more areas. This, therefore, is a poor response with significant ambiguity as to whether the bidder can meet the requirement due to the failure by the bidder to show that it meets one or more areas of the requirement.
0	Unacceptable – The response is non-compliant with the requirements of the RFP and/or no response has been provided.

13.4 Commercial Evaluation – Your “Overall Price” (as calculated in accordance with requirements of Annex 3 (Pricing Approach) for the goods and/or services will be evaluated by the evaluation panel for the purposes of the commercial evaluation, further information on this approach may be available in Annex 3. In the event that any prices are expressed as being subject to any pricing assumptions, qualifications or indexation not provided for by the British Council as part of the pricing approach, the British Council may reject the full Proposal at this point. The British Council may also reject any Proposal where the Overall Price for the goods and/or services is considered by the British Council to be abnormally low following the relevant processes set out under the procurement rules. A maximum offer score of 10 will be awarded to the Proposal offering the lowest “Overall Price”. Other Proposals will be awarded a mark by application of the following formula: (Lowest Overall Price/Overall Price being evaluated) x 10 (rounded to two decimal places) = commercial score.

13.5 Moderation and application of weightings – The evaluation panel appointed for this Procurement Process will meet to agree and moderate scores for each award criteria. Final scores in terms of a percentage of the overall Proposal score will be obtained by applying the relevant weighting factors set out as part of the award criteria table above. The percentage scores for each award criteria will be amalgamated to give a percentage score out of 100.

13.6 The Winning Proposal(s) - when applying the above evaluation methodology, which is also supported by any required verification evidence (to include, without limitation, any updated information)] obtained by the Authority relating to any self-certification or other requirements referred to at any time in this Procurement Process.
